The remarkable thing is that it is the crowded life that is most easily remembered.
A life full of turns, achievement,

chl,

What can I say? An awful lot!! I don't know how to explain how much your friendship has meant to me. We've been close for a couple of years now, and they've been wonderful! I won't ever forget all the fun (?) in Mrs. Campbell's room in 8th grade, or Mrs. Lee's fifth period, free-for-all-food-thrashing class. And who could forget Mr. Bell, or all the fun we had in band class, at football games, in Cookeville, (with David Swinn and the pink jelly beans!) Or what about "Buy from Venice?" Those were the days! But I think that we can honestly say that our first year here at Overton has been the best. Band Camp was HOT!! , but it was a real blast!! And so were the football games, and who could forget the JCL Convention? Or Latin class for that matter. Well, chl, next year is going to be great even if we are taking Latin III, and you are going to be first-chair-trumpet! I can honestly say that I've loved every minute of knowing you, and I hope next year we can stay real close. I can't believe that in two years we will be graduating. It doesn't seem possible that this class that cracked so many jokes in Mrs. Campbell's class is going to go to college in 2 years. Time flies when you're having fun. Well, chl, what have I said? An awful lot (if nothing much!!) I'm glad we're friends. Keep in touch, see ya next year, you're a great person -

Love

Principal

Favorite Season and Why: Fall—A season of many colors.

FACULTY

Mahlon Inman
Assistant Principal

Favorite Season and Why: All seasons—Life changes just as the seasons do; growth changes just as the skies do.

Paul D. Murray
Assistant Principal

Favorite Season and Why: Fall—Beautiful scenery, cool weather, and football.

Shirley Randolph Allen
English

Favorite Season and Why: Autumn—Because autumn is characteristic of maturity.

Jannie T. Baumgartner
Librarian

Favorite Season and Why: Spring—Everything comes alive. I love to hear the birds sing and to see nature turn the brown world green. It makes me feel happy and alive too.

Glade Binkley

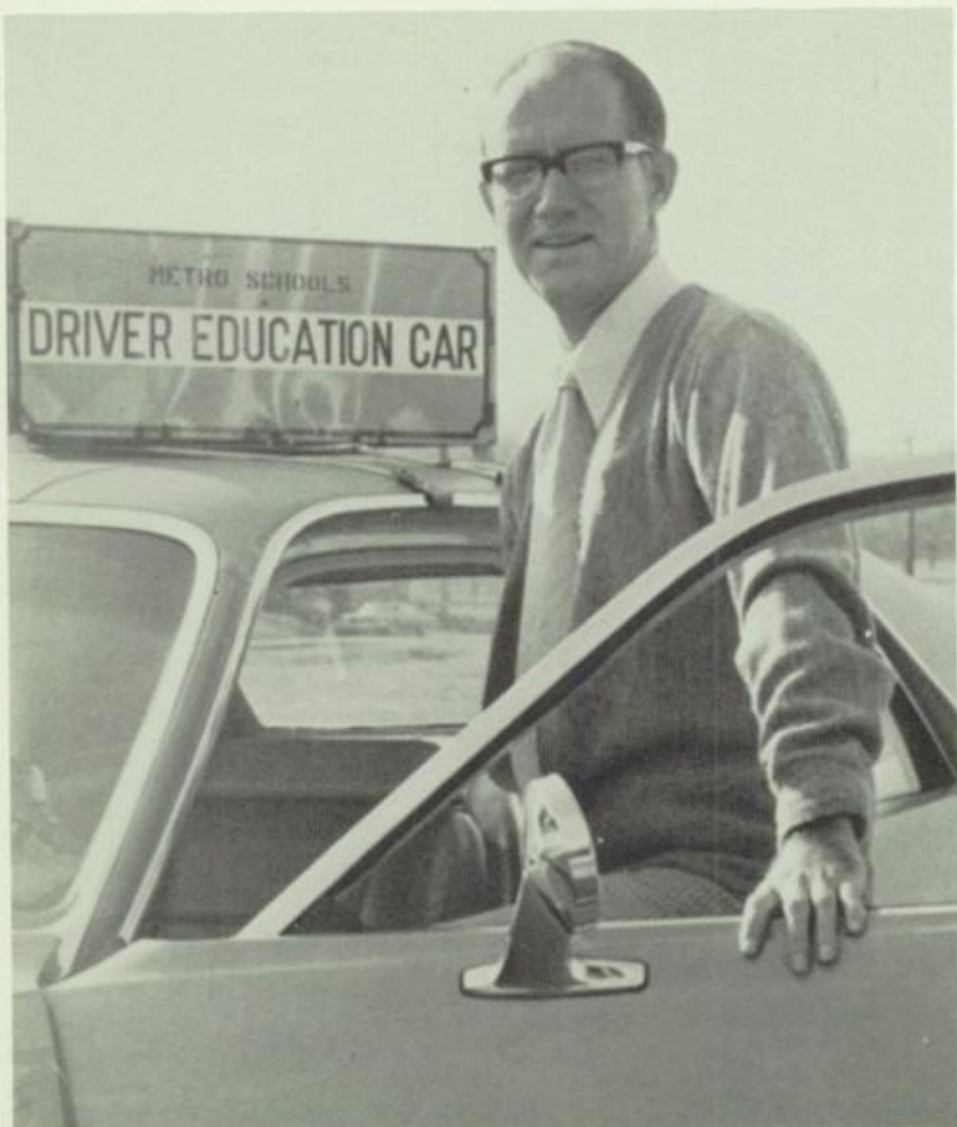

Algebra II, Calculus, Computer Math, Geometry

Favorite Season and Why: Christmas—This is the time of the year when people think of others more than themselves.

Johnnie Bond, Jr.
Drafting

Favorite Season and Why: Spring—Things become real; new life and life renewed; the budding of trees and flowers, animals and birds preparing for their young, and each shedding old coats and growing new. The coming of summer vacation.

Robert Boyd
Drivers' Education

Favorite Season and Why: Spring—A new birth in the trees and flowers.

Patricia Brock
Accounting I and Typewriting I

Favorite Season and Why: Summer—Because everything is so full of life and blooming. People seem to shed their "wintry" shells and regain their energy. Summer reminds one of how beautiful life can be and how thankful we should all be that we're living and able to see, hear, and enjoy nature's gifts.

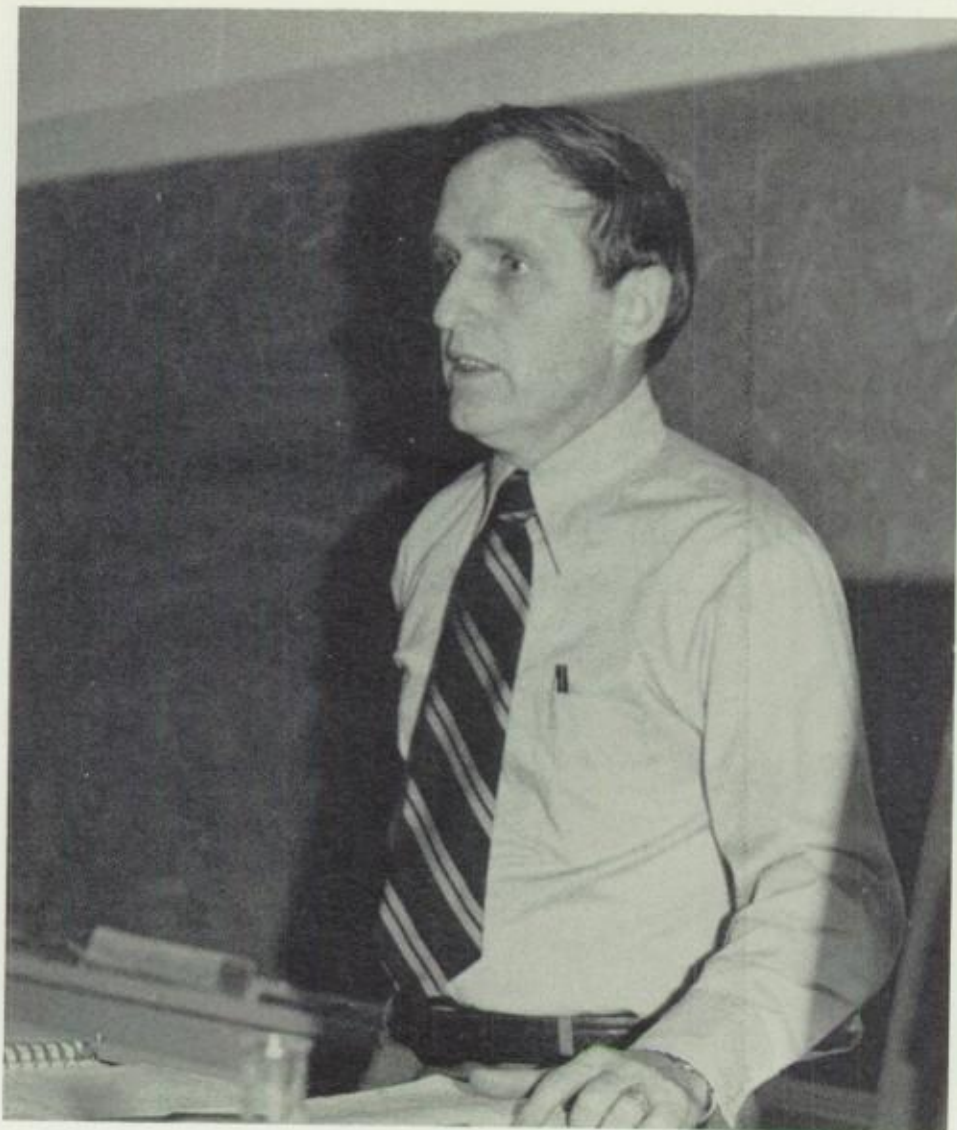

Bernard S. Butler, Jr.
Health and Tennis

Favorite Season and Why: Spring—Fishing begins to pick up, and a person can spend more time outdoors.

Harry D.R. Caldwell
Graphic Arts

Favorite Season and Why: Christmas—Because that's when Santa Claus comes!

John Carter
Physics and Physical Science
Favorite Season and Why: Fall—Football.

Ronnie Carter
Advanced Math, Geometry, and Trigonometry
Favorite Season and Why: Fall—Because of the beauty of nature.

Pat Cary
Typewriting I and II, Personal Typewriting
Favorite Season and Why: Spring—It is the beginning and the end. The beginning of warmth and sunshine and the approaching end of school.

Nick Coutras
Physical Education
Favorite Season and Why: Spring—Because I feel that it is the time when new life is born.

Nancy Daniel Covington
Spanish I, II, III, IV

Favorite Season and Why: Summer—This time of the year gives me an opportunity to be with my family more. It is my time in which I rest and prepare for the more difficult months ahead.

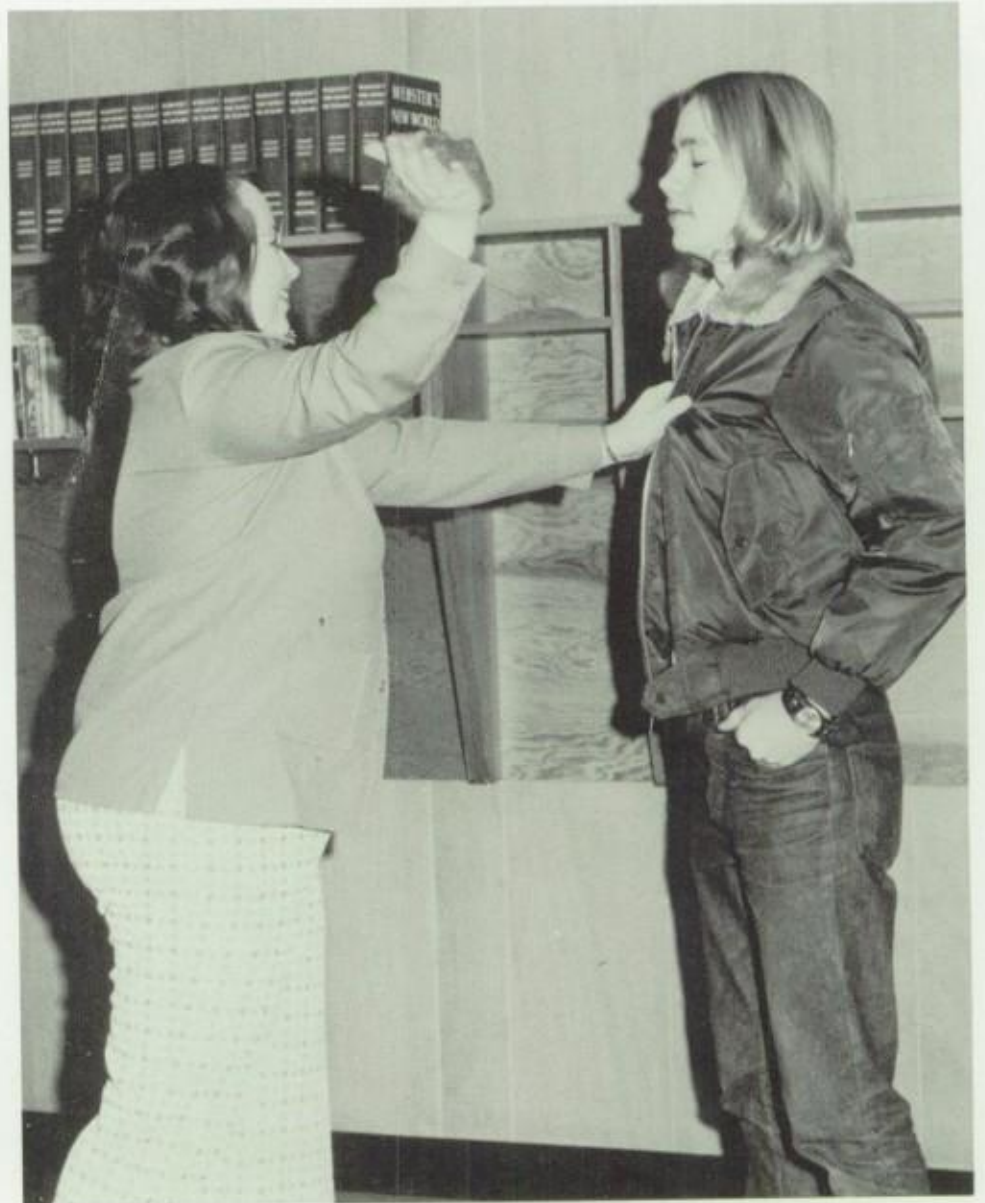

W.C. Crews
American History and Sociology

Favorite Season and Why: Winter—I have always liked all winter sports!

Evelyn L. Davidson
English

Favorite Season and Why: I really have no favorite season, in that I enjoy many aspects of each. In fact, I probably wouldn't enjoy living in an area where a change in season is not evident.

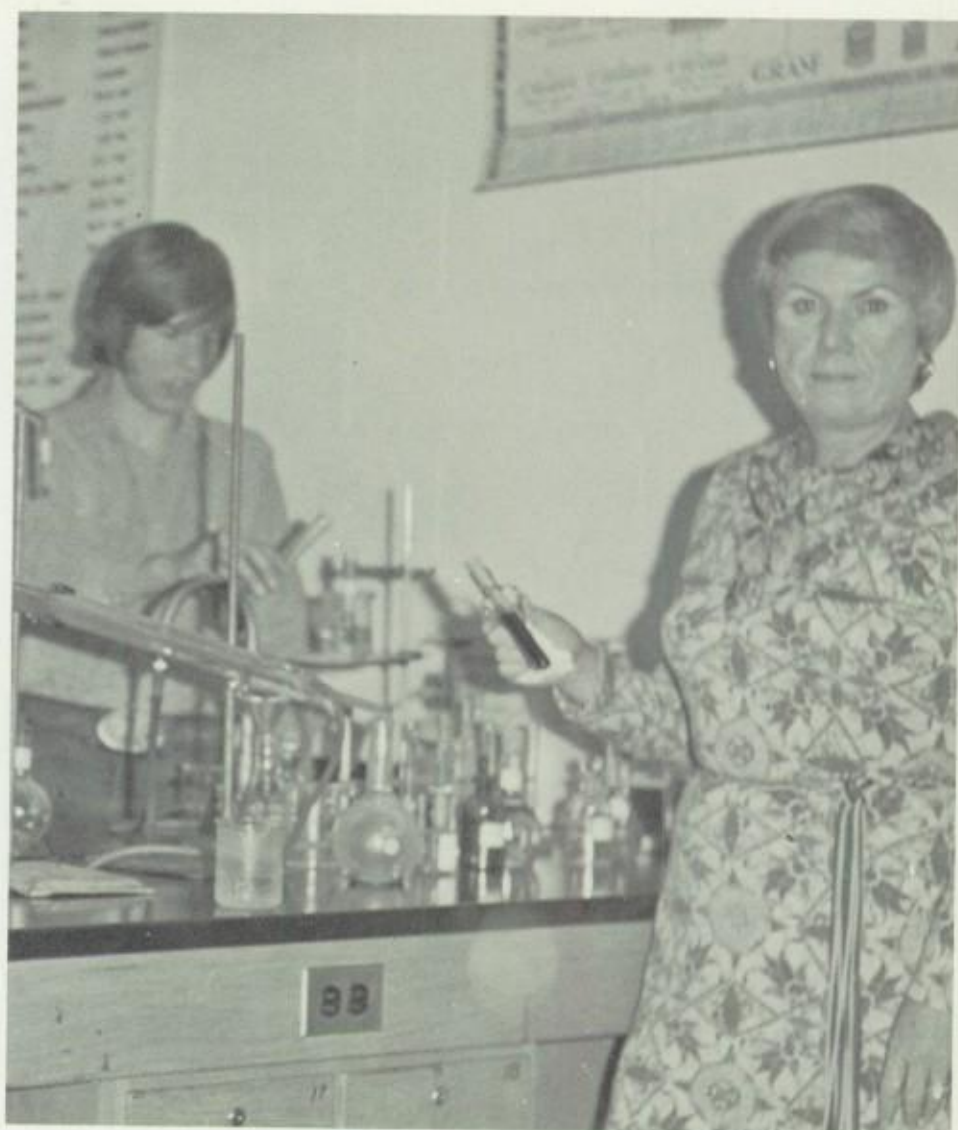

Sandra W. Davis
English and Drama

Favorite Season and Why: Spring—Warm temperatures, re-vitalization of natural colors and animal life.

Roberta Daws
English

Favorite Season and Why: Autumn is colorful, breezy, invigorating, challenging, inspirational, and unique!

Helen T. Engles
Biology, Chemistry I and II

Favorite Season and Why: Spring—I can recite my favorite poem! Spring has come The grass is 'riz' I wonder whur—Them birdies iz. (Golf birdies, that is)

Virginia O. Ezell
Guidance Secretary

Favorite Season and Why: Spring—The newness of nature lifts us all to new heights.

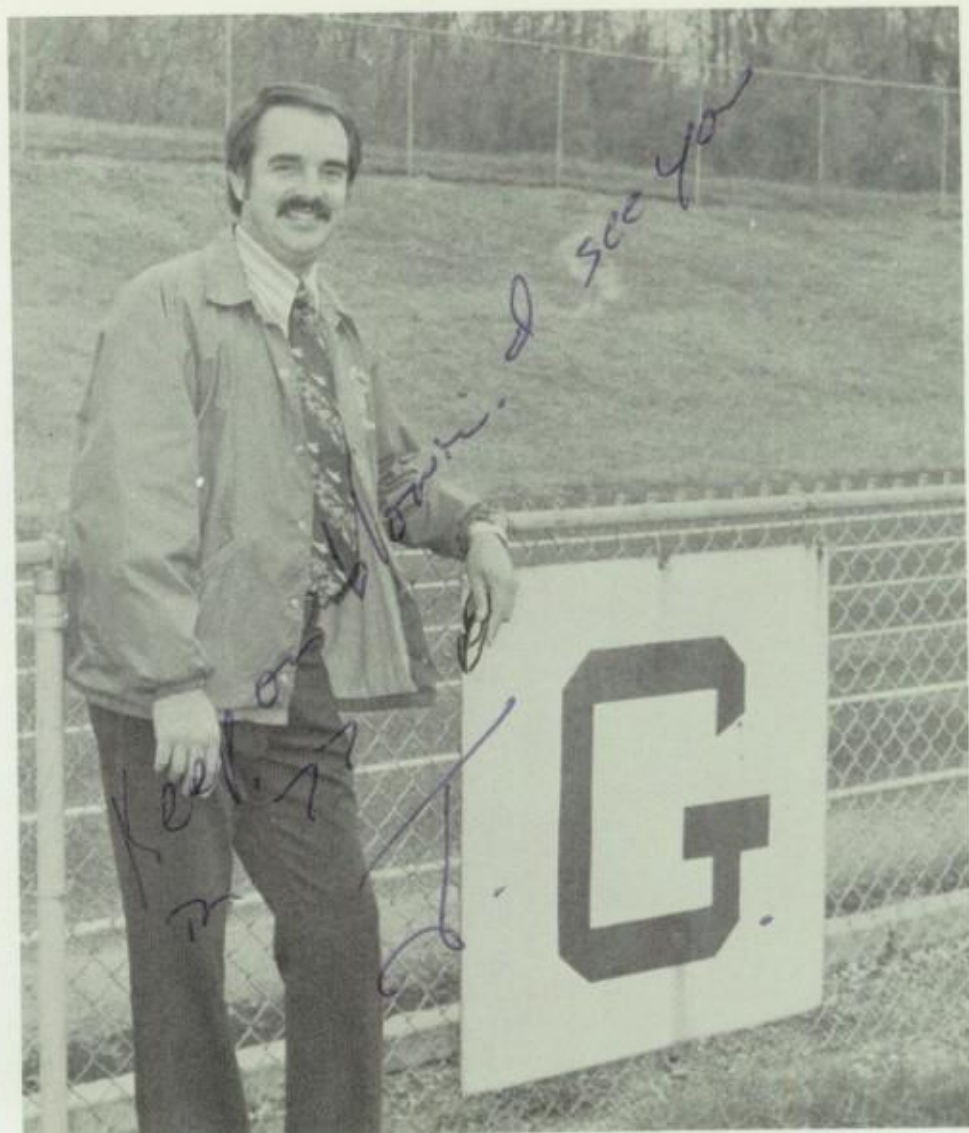

James Ferguson
Health and Sociology

Favorite Season and Why: Summer—I enjoy the outdoors and warm weather; not necessarily the vacation.

~Donna Flatt
Typewriting I and II, Personal Typewriting
Favorite Season and Why: Fall—Beautiful scenery.

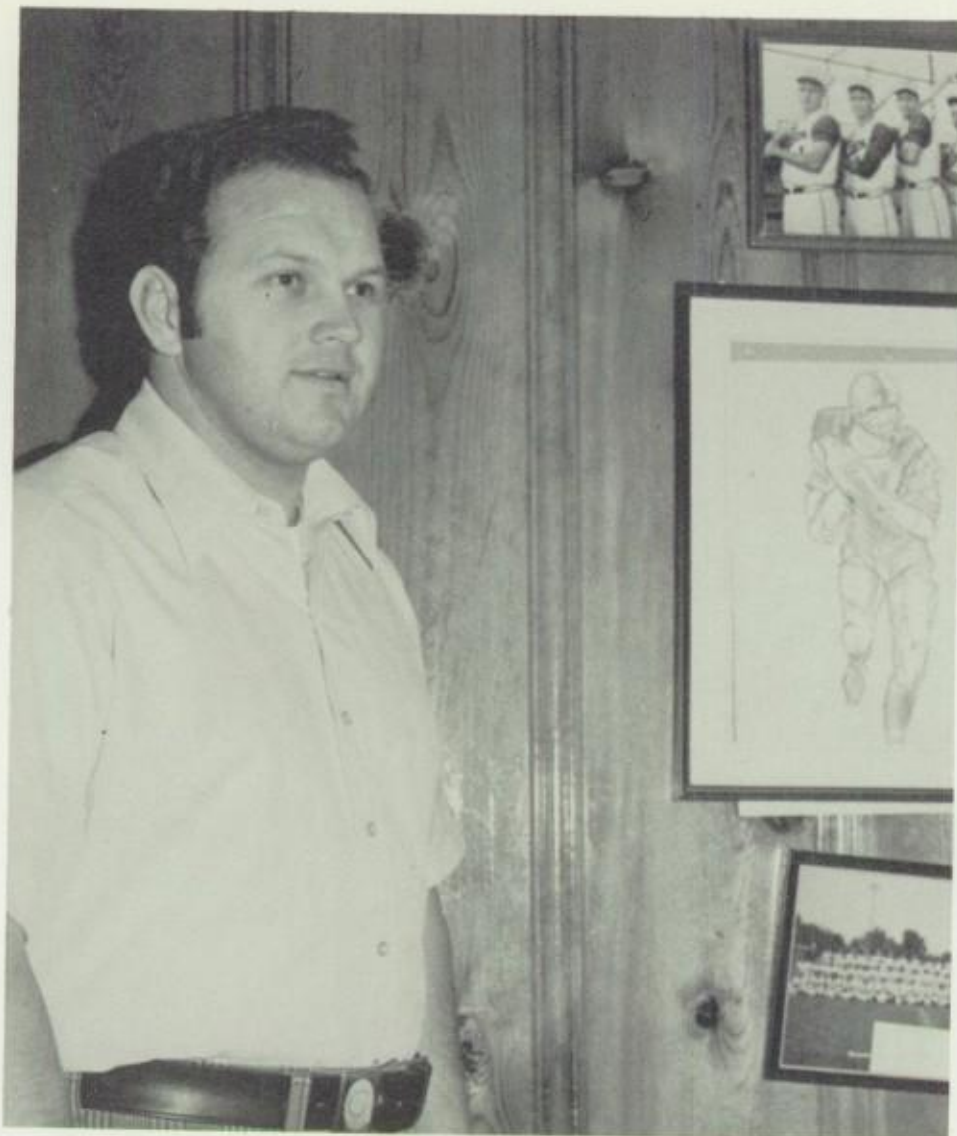

James Golden
Band Director
Favorite Season and Why: Spring—It follows winter.

Mrs. E.W. Gordon
English
Favorite Season and Why: Spring—The weather is moderate. The environment is alive, awake, and aware. Nature affords one visible experience; activity at its best!

Mary Anne Grass
American History and Journalism
Favorite Season and Why: Spring—Because the world seems to renew itself. New life, new growth, warm weather, and everything changes from a dull brown to green, green, green.

Donnell Graves
General Business and Health
Favorite Season and Why: Spring—Because of the change in nature after the "dead" of the winter.

E.T. Griffith
Faculty Student Advisor
Favorite Season and Why: Spring—After a long hard winter, everyone's fancy seems to turn to love.

Mrs. Mary Katherine Hammer
Home Economics
Favorite Season and Why: Spring—Everything is so beautiful: trees, flowers, and all of nature.

Nancy E. Holmes
Algebra I and II
Favorite Season and Why: Summer—Because I like to play in golf tournaments during the summer.

Marjorie Horn
English

Favorite Season and Why: Summer—"Then Heaven tries earth if it be in tune."

Linda L. Jones
Librarian

Favorite Season and Why: Spring—As nature takes on a new appearance, I feel rejuvenated.

Vivian Jones
Home Economics

Favorite Season and Why: Spring—Because it gives me a feeling of a new beginning.

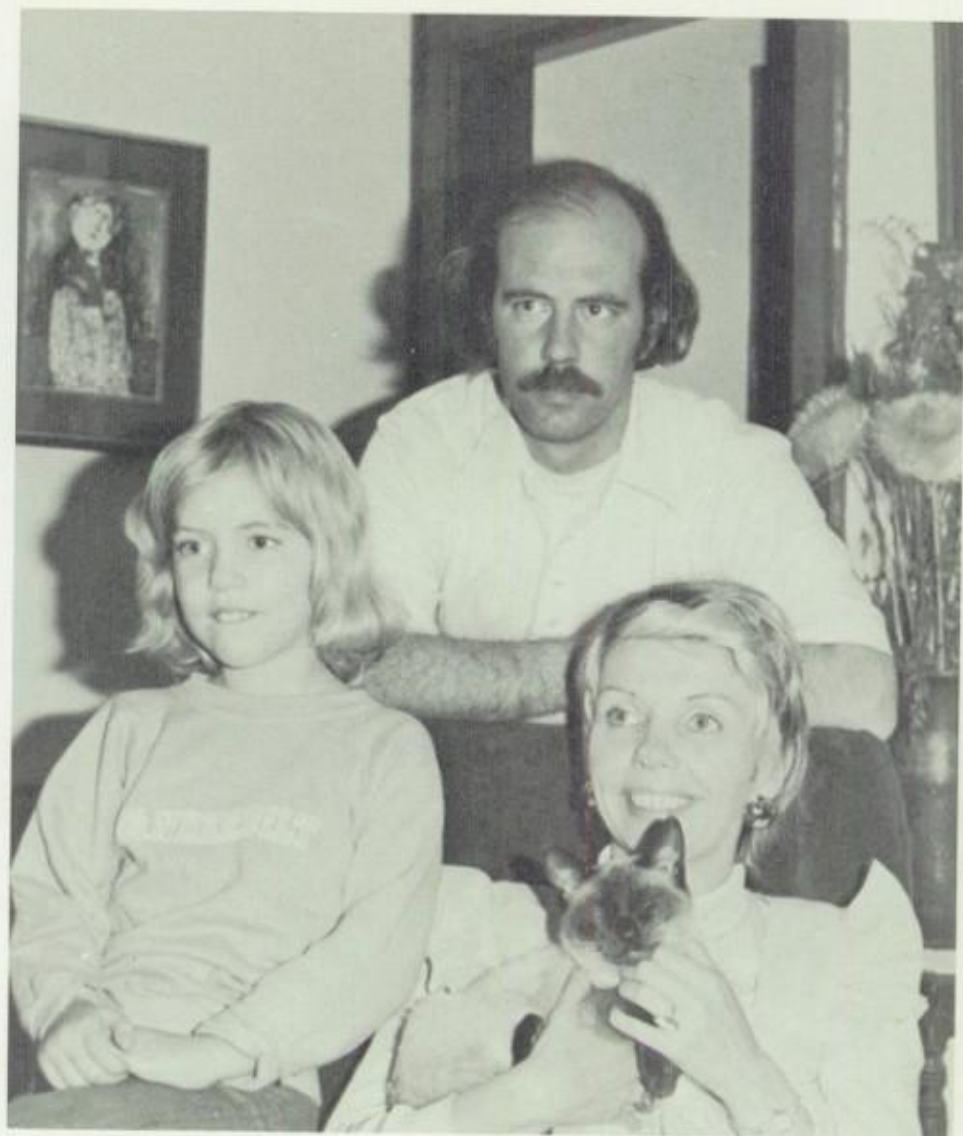

Mrs. Frances Jordan
Guidance Director

Favorite Season and Why: Spring—I like spring because everything takes on a newness of life.

Sylvia Karnowsky
American History and Government

Favorite Season and Why: No favorite—Each has its unique qualities: the absolute silence of fresh snow in the winter, the growing warmth of the ground in spring, the pleasure of having time to think and reflect in the summer, and the return of formal structure to life and the beauty of the last forced-life of nature in the fall.

Jean Fallon Love
German

Favorite Season and Why: Sommer—Spass, Schwimmen, Schlafen, and Keine Schule!

Granell McShepard
Biology

Favorite Season and Why: Fall—Because the temperature and weather is favorable for many outdoor activities that I enjoy so much.

Inez Sandusky

American History, Economics, and World History

Favorite Season and Why: Spring—It is a time of reawakening.

Nelson J. Senter
Vocational Horticulture

Favorite Season and Why: Spring and Summer—This is the time the flowers are in bloom at their best. The weather is good for outdoor activities.

Mrs. Jo Ann Smith
Secretary

Favorite Season and Why: Spring—The flowers are blooming. The trees are budding. The weather is nice and refreshing.

Mrs. Nell B. Spencer

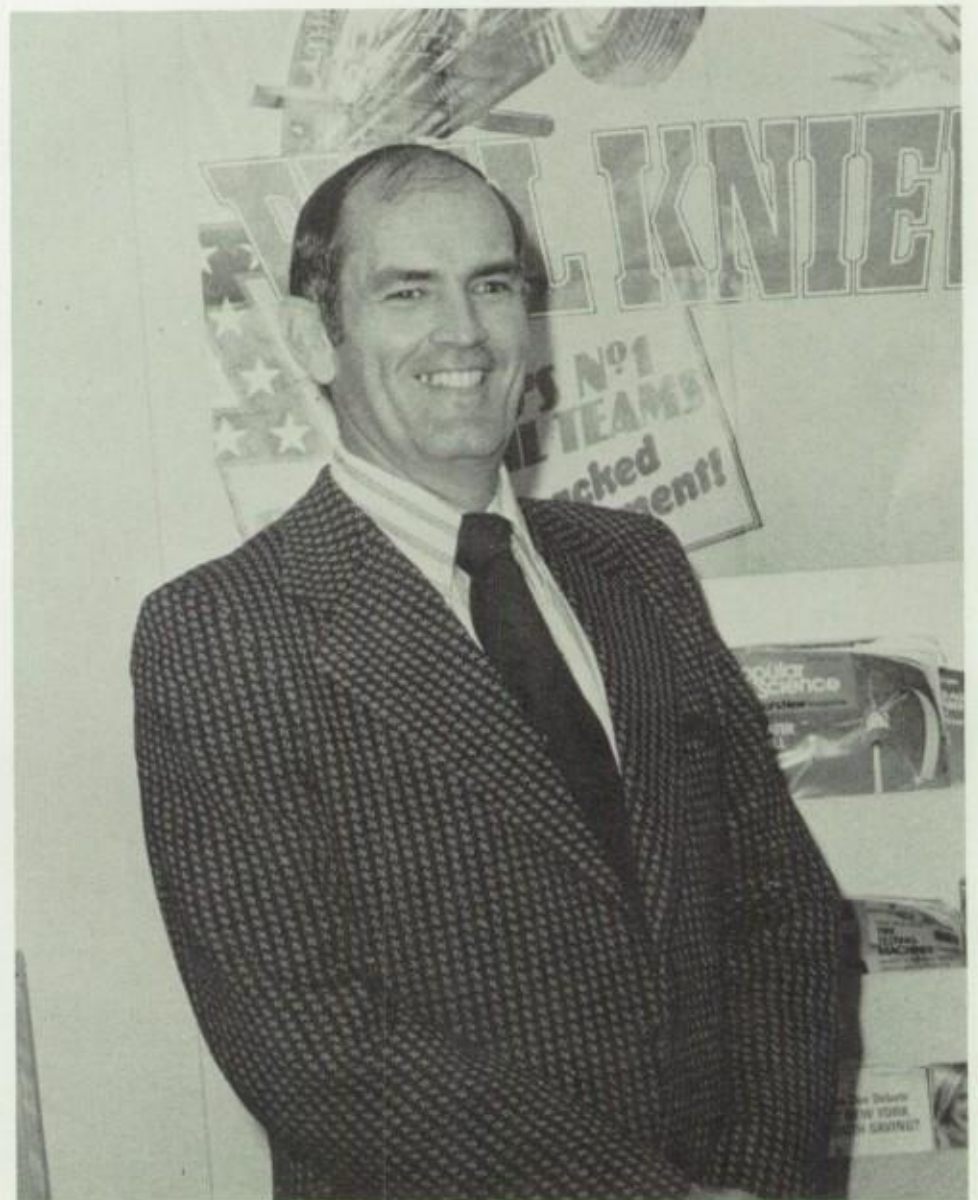

Business Machines and Vocational Office Education

Favorite Season and Why: Fall—The beauty that surrounds us, the colored leaves, fall flowers and perfect weather.

Frances Beeler Stephens Art

Favorite Season and Why: All Four Seasons—Because of the meaning: Spring—Awakening, Summer—Full Bloom, Fall—Harvesting, Winter—Repose.

George R. Thompson
Distributive Education

Favorite Season and Why: Summer—Because school's out.

Randall H. Tidwell
Applied Math

Favorite Season and Why: Spring—All of nature is coming to life again. The weather is nice for track season.

Erma J. Todd
English

Favorite Season and Why: Spring—Because the weather is pleasant. It is refreshing to see green leaves on the trees and flowers blooming following the cold winter months.

Myrtis H. Todd
English

Favorite Season and Why: I love Indian summer and the colorful trees. It is a refreshing pause between two more violent seasons—summer and winter—a time for the taking in of nature before winter's destruction.

William Tucker
Health and Physical Education

Favorite Season and Why: Spring—Baseball and fishing.

John Vukelich
General Cooperative Education

Favorite Season and Why: Summer—I enjoy fishing and golfing. This is also the best time to visit Canada.

Mary Walsh
Physical Education

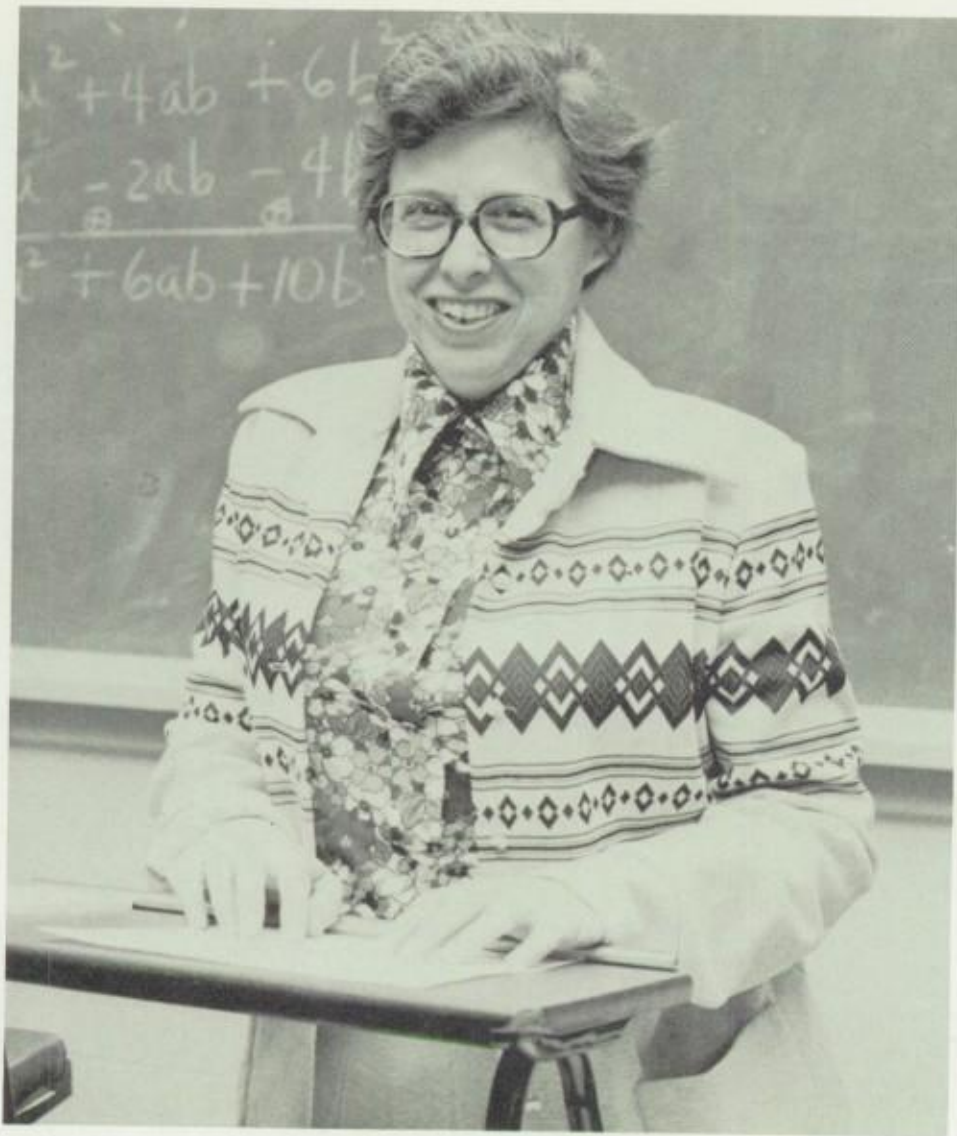

Mrs. Juanita S. Ward
Latin and Mythology

Favorite Season and Why: Fall and Spring—Fall: Invigorating, cool air after heat of the summer and the color to the leaves and sky stimulate me. Spring: After the dead, gray look of winter and the chilling cold winds, the warmth and new life around me (in growing things) are beautiful.

Mrs. Sue Weeks
Food Service Program

Anne White

Algebra I and II, Geometry, and Forensic Club Sponsor

Favorite Season and Why: Summer—I like open doors, no coats, vacation, and travel.

Mrs. Julie B. Williams
English

Favorite Season and Why: Summer—I prefer summer because I can go outside and enjoy nature; the days are longer, thus providing a chance to stay out later.

FOOTBALL

"The Thin Red Line"—certainly, not one of the most awe-inspiring nicknames a football team could acquire. Yet this phrase—expressed by Bobcat mentor, Nick Coutras—was perhaps the most concise description of the fortunes which befell the 1975 edition of the Overton High School Bobcats. The Bobcats went into their first contest with high pre-season rankings and a host of talented athletes. These auspicious beginnings were confirmed by a convincing 52-0 shutout of Clarksville Northwest. In their next outing, however, the 'Cats were shocked by a re-vamped MBA squad and fell to the Big Red, 20-14 in overtime. The Bobcats came back strong the next week by soundly defeating Midstate power, Columbia, 27-7—proving that the pre-season polls were no fluke.

The win, however, was costly. Premier quarterback, Bob Potter, was lost for the season with a separated shoulder—leaving junior standout, Jimmy Wash to take control of the Overton offense. With Wash at the helm, Overton chalked up decisive wins over Clarksville and Pearl, and a devastating victory over previously unbeaten Antioch, 43-6. The 'Cats fortunes, however, were dealt another serious blow when defensive stalwart Tom Feeney went down with a broken arm, and Wash was lost for the season with a broken leg. The offensive unit was now in the hands of sophomore Mike Sullivan. The next game, Overton's defense pounded for a 18-6 defeat at the hands of McGavock on a rain-soaked field. The 'Cats then fell to an excellent Ryan squad, 14-0—with injuries to key personnel becoming less serious, but more frequent. Overton's next opponent, Hillsboro, felt the brunt of two weeks frustration as the Bobcats recorded a resounding 34-0 victory. The season concluded on a rather sour note as the 'Cats fell to NIL powerhouse, Maplewood, 28-0, in a game which proved to be closer than the score indicated. The Overton Bobcats had weathered the season and come out with a 6-4 record. All in all, it was a rather frustrating year for Overton's coaches, players, and fans. Yet, with all the injuries and adversities, the team had learned a valuable lesson in adjusting to the conditions which confronted them. And there was the "Red Line"—thin, but unbroken.

bel,

Also, Latin is almost over. And English. And biology. And land, too bad. I hope you feel honored that I thought of something else to say. You should (just kidding). I hope you have enjoyed my humor. You have truly been blessed. Seriously, though, you're a great guy. I won't say you're crazy, so don't get depressed. I will just say that you are frequently humorous.

Clubs

And

Love ya,
Sandy

EDITOR'S COMMENTS

For many of us here at John Overton High School, those unique and oft-romanticized years—known as the “high school days”—are swiftly coming to a close. Never again will we be able to re-live that vast array of experiences which have contributed to making these some of the most unforgettable years in life. I am confident that the situations encountered, the lessons learned, and the memories garnered will be among our most cherished.

And it is to the preservation of these priceless moments that the staff of the 1976 Overtour wishes to dedicate this volume. Each member of the staff has spent countless hours and inestimable effort in helping to make this yearbook one of the very best. No words of mine could begin to express the gratitude and appreciation each and every staff member deserves for their hard work and tireless dedication. They are the heart and soul of this publication.

A special word of thanks is due our publishers—Herff Jones Yearbooks—and Overton's company representative, Mr. William Benson, Jr. Also, the ever present guidance and counseling of Overtour advisor, Miss Carolyn Read Pickering, was of the utmost importance in the creation and production on this book. Her value to the staff—indeed, to the yearbook, itself—could hardly be expressed.

So here is the 1976 Overtour. Take it, scan its pages, and try to think of it as more than a haphazard collection of meaningless pictures. May each picture, each phrase, come to life in a vivid re-animation of some long-since-forgotten, but nonetheless dear, memory. If the 1976 Overtour can accomplish this, I feel that this book will have served its purpose—to be a lasting reminder of those “good old high school days.”
